Summer Fun Events at Veneta Pool

All About Art Summer Camp - “Taking Flight”

Times: 9:00am-12:00pm  Age: Completed kindergarten - 8th Grade
Fees: $60 per session or $150 for all three weeks *Scholarships available
Register today! www.lanearts.org/summer-camp

Presented at Veneta Elementary School in partnership with the Lane Arts Council, this hands-on camp offers safe, fun experiences for the arts for students Kindergarten through 8th grade. This year students will explore flight in various art forms, from silk painting and clay modeling, to dance and theater.

Session 1: July 8 - July 11, Monday - Thursday
Taking Flight lifts off with students sculpting flying animals through clay modeling and constructing wearable wings decorated with silk paintings under the guidance of teaching artists Alex Lanham and Merideth Ferrell. They will also learn fundamental theatre skills with Applegate Regional Theatre.

Session 2: July 15 - July 18, Monday - Thursday
Campers will enter our second week of programming with tile painting and water color as they depict birds of flight in a variety of mediums. Applegate Regional Theatre will continue bringing students into the world of playmaking through improvisation and stagecraft.

Session 3: July 22 - July 25, Monday - Thursday
During week 3 campers will delve into puppetry with professional puppeteer Noah McCall Philpot and explore drum and dance with the West African Cultural Arts Institute. Taking Flight will conclude with a showcase of student created artworks and performance that family and friends are sure to enjoy!
